

What do electrons do when ions collide?

A. Caro<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup>Los Alamos National Laboratory

The keystone to molecular dynamics simulations of radiation damage is the Born-Oppenheimer or adiabatic approximation. In this talk I will discuss recent progress on going beyond this approximation and the new phenomena that could be possible to describe when electrons and ions are treated simultaneously as out of equilibrium.